

PLANNING AND COORDINATION OF SOCIO-EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

The Master's Degree or Licentiate course in Planning and Coordination of Socio-Educational Services trains professionals capable of planning, managing, evaluating and coordinating educational activities with a holistic vision of the individual and of education within the vast and complex range of social and educational services for children, adolescents, families, for people with disabilities, for the disadvantaged and those who are marginalised.

Career opportunities

At the end of the course of study graduates can find work as:

- supervisors, managers and educational coordinators for social and educational services (centres and services for minors, traditional and small-scale nurseries, recreational and leisure activities, home and family services, intercultural work, and activities involving social hardship);
- experts in educational planning, management of educational and cultural services, coordination between public and private social services; evaluation of social and educational services, and the training of youth workers;
- educational consultants and planners in organisations and personal services provided by public and private entities.

For more information visit
<http://www.pfse-auxilium.org/en/>
You can also find the pre registration page here

PLANNING AND COORDINATION OF SOCIO-EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

master's degree or licenciate course

Learning outcomes

- to have acquired an in-depth knowledge and understanding of specialised and scientific methodologies and content in the field of educational science and social and educational work with children, adolescents, families, persons with disabilities, the disadvantaged and those who are marginalised;
- to be able to plan, carry out and present research into socio-cultural and socio-educational topics;
- to be able to plan, coordinate and implement educational activities in the local area and within the social and educational services in different areas (social work, families, intercultural settings, and with disadvantaged or marginalised minors);
- to be able to promote training courses in the field of preventing hardship and defending human rights;
- to have developed skills for the organisation, management and coordination of social and educational services (nursery, residential and semi-residential homes, day care centres and youth training centres);
- to be able to plan networking activities, especially in the relationship between families, schools and extra-curricular activities and in coordination with the services available in the local area;
- to have acquired the skills necessary for independent and critical continuous learning;
- to have a good command of IT tools for research, communication and information management;
- to know and use a foreign language correctly.

Teaching and learning

The Master's Degree Course covers two years, during which 120 ECTS credits must be obtained. To obtain the necessary credits to graduate students must carry out the required training activities (courses, seminars and workshops) and an internship.

ACTIVITIES

Moral Philosophy
Communication Theories
Elements of Statistics /S

Educational Research
Social Education II
Special Education II
Adult Education
Intercultural Pedagogy
Planning Methodology of Socio-Educational Services
Social Psychology
Community Psychology
Developmental Psychopathology
Sociology of the Family
Sociology of Organization
Economics and Business Management
Laboratory of Network Planning in Services to the Person
Laboratory of Socio-Cultural Research

Political Philosophy
Economic Theory
Catholic Social Teaching

Cultural Anthropology *
Psychology of family relationships *

Internship
Foreign Language
Thesis

Student Workers

The structure of the course, the organization of training activities and exams facilitate the conciliation with work.

Classes are held on weekends.

Students who come from other universities can apply for recognition of university exams. The student-worker who has professional and voluntary work experience, can request validation of the internship upon presentation of the required documents.